The EMEA region continues to show strong momentum, with several major programs progressing through certification and early production. Lufthansa remains a critical focus; given its strategic importance, Tapis must remain especially engaged to protect this key account from competitive pressure. Emirates projects are moving forward steadily, with upcoming visits reinforcing a positive trajectory. At Etihad, a transition in project leadership offers an opportunity to reaffirm our value, while Turkish Airlines has initiated new testing—an encouraging sign of continued collaboration. Overall, customer engagement remains high, and Tapis is well-positioned to support partners as programs advance.
